

SKASE

JOURNAL OF THEORETICAL LINGUISTICS

VOLUME 1 (2004) No. 1

Edited by Pavol Štekauer

Board of Consulting Editors:

Bas Aarts, University College London, UK; Jean Aitchison, Oxford University, UK; Jan Don, Amsterdam University, The Netherlands; Martin Everaert, Utrecht University, The Netherlands; Milan Ferencík, Prešov University, Slovak Republic; Christina Gagne, University of Alberta, Canada; Stephanie Hackert, Regensburg University, Germany; Ján Horecký, Professor Emeritus, Slovak Republic; Leonhard Lipka, Professor Emeritus, Germany; Stanislav Kavka, Ostrava University, Czech Republic; Peter Koch, Tuebingen University, Germany; Merja Kyto, Uppsala University, Sweden; Jean-Rémi Lapaire, Bordeaux University, France; Rochelle Lieber, University of New Hampshire, USA; Arne Olofsson, Göteborg University, Sweden; Dana Slančová, Prešov University, Slovak Republic; Slávka Tomaščíková, Prešov University, Slovak Republic; Salvador Valera, University of Jaen, Spain

Table of Contents

Leonhard Lipka, Susanne Handl, and Wolfgang Falkner:

“Lexicalization & Institutionalization. The State of the Art in 2004”

1-

Salvador Valera: “Conversion vs. unmarked word-class change”

Stanislav Kavka and Jerzy Zybert: “Glimpses on the History of Idiomaticity Issues”

Ana Ibáñez Moreno and Ana Ortigosa Pastor: “

Recategorizing Active Accomplishment Verbs of Induced
Motion: a Semantic Approach within Role and Reference
Grammar”