

Publication ethics

SKASE Journal of Literary and Cultural Studies (SJLCS) is committed to:

- maintaining the editorial independence of journal editors
- supporting journal editors to run their journals ethically and transparently

Authors should ensure that:

- their work is original and it has not been previously published and has been submitted only to the SKASE Journal of Literary and Cultural Studies (SJLCS)
- where material is taken from other sources the source is clearly cited and that where needed appropriate permission is obtained
- their data is their own or that they have permission to use data reproduced in their paper
- any real or apparent conflicting or competing interest is clearly stated on submission of their paper
- authorship of the paper is accurately represented and that all co-authors have given consent for publication

Reviewers must:

- maintain the confidentiality of the review process
- immediately alert the editors-in-chief of any conflict of interests that could affect the impartiality of their reviewing and decline to review where appropriate
- conduct themselves fairly and impartially
