

Copyright, Licensing, and Archiving

1. Copyright and Licensing

All articles published in SKASE JOURNAL OF LITERARY AND CULTURAL STUDIES will be made immediately and permanently free for everyone to read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, or link to the full texts of articles, crawl them for indexing, pass them as data to software, or use them for any other lawful purpose. Author(s) contributing to the journal agree to publish their articles under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license (CC BY 4.0).

Authors retain copyright and grant the journal the right of first publication, with the work simultaneously licensed under Creative Commons Attribution 4.0. International License, which allows others to share the work with an acknowledgment of the work's authorship and initial publication in this journal.

Open Access publishing in the journal is free of charge

2. Archiving and Digital Preservation

Articles are assigned a Digital Object Identifier (DOI) for persistent identification and stable access. The journal maintains electronic backups and deposits final published versions in institutional repositories. In the event that the journal ceases publication, previously published content will remain accessible via DOI links and institutional archival storage, ensuring permanent preservation of the scholarly record.